SERIES OF SERMONS AT CHRIST CHURCH.

For the Sunday nights during the month of January, the rector of Christ Church has announced a special series of sermons on "Some Men We Have Known." The subjects and dates of the sermons will be as follows: January 3, "The Man With a Gift." January 10, "The Man With a Gratitude and an Excuse." January 17, "The Man With a Handicap." January 24, "The Man With a Mission." and January 31, "The Perfect Man." Another feature of these sermons, which it is hoped will prove both interesting and helpful, will be the introduction of a "question box." Any person who cares to do so can write one or more questions on a slip of paper and drop it in the box last outside the church door, and on the following Sunday night these questions will be answered by the rector from the pulpit.

The questions may be on any subject of religion, morals, the Bible or the church, and need not be signed with the questioner's name. This will furnish to all who care to avail themselves of it an opportunity to get information on a variety of subjects about which they feel a hesitancy in asking questions. It is the wish of the rector that the "question box" be used freely, and all who attend these services are invited to do so. The fine quartette choir will render special music at these services, and courteous ushers will see to the seating of all comers. The hour is 7:30, and all persons are free at the night services. "Come and worship."

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE.

Inspired by the results which have been accomplished in other cities of Virginia, the Cameron Club has, since last May, contemplated civic improvement. This movement will in no way encroach upon the work of the City Council, but rather may be regarded as an auxiliary to it. Though the league had its inspiration in the Cameron Club the work will not be undertaken solely by the club, but with the assistance and support of some of the most prominent men of the city. It is earnestly desired that every person in the community will show interest in the movement by becoming a member of the organization. It is especially desired that a spirit of civic betterment may be aroused among the school children and that all property owners may become interested in making the town attractive. A little thought and care from each individual will help to keep the streets clean and attractive. The following committees are to be formed: Membership, schools, streets, press and reception and the Civic Improvement League hopes to do its modest work towards the trifles which make perfection, though perfection is no trifle.

PRINTED IN THREE CENTURIES.

To review the progress of an ancient institution is not only a reminiscent pleasure, but a profitable and instructive thing to do, recalling as it does half-forgotten history, impressing the truths of basic principles, and affording lines by which we may guide more safely the destiny of such interests as we may happen to be identified with.

Tuesday morning's mail brought yesterday's issue of the Alexandria Gazette, which ended the one hundred and ninth year of the publication of that interesting and widely-known paper.

MEN'S MEETING.

Rev. Wm. E. Henry, of Washington, will make the address at the men's meeting in the Young People's building tomorrow at 3:20 p. m. Mrs. O. E. Outcalt will sing. All men are cordially invited.

Kodol digests all the food you eat. If you will take Kodol for a little while you will no longer have indigestion. It is pleasant to take, acts promptly. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Buy your boy a pair of Storm King Boots—the high top fellows—that's what the boys want—from John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

REPORTED ACCEPTANCE.

A rumor was in circulation in this city this evening that Rev. Barryman Green, after a conference with Bishop Gibson, has decided to accept the position of the Bishop of Virginia, to which he was recently elected. The rumor could not be verified, but it is generally accepted as true.

It has since been ascertained that a statement of Dr. Green's definite determination in the matter will not be given out till next week.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Sallie Nalls, wife of Mr. Jackson Nalls, died last night at her home, 330 South Patrick street. The deceased was a native of Orange county. She was 40 years old, and leaves three children.

Mrs. Anna M. Cockrell, widow of Richard Cockrell, died in Washington last night. The deceased was 78 years old. She leaves several children. The remains will be brought to this city for interment.

Henry Butler, a well-known colored man, who had been in ill health for some time, died suddenly at his home on Princess street, between Fairfax and Royal, today.

TOES MASHED OFF.

A white man named S. H. Culp arrived in this city a few days ago suffering from injuries received in West Virginia while engaged in cutting timber. He took up his abode in the vicinity of the Alexandria Glass Works, and being scantily clothed and apparently in want of the necessities of life, he attracted a certain. This morning Lieutenant Smith sent Officer Rawlett to make an investigation. He found that Culp was unable to walk, and procured a vehicle and conveyed him to the station house where he was furnished with a breakfast. The man said the toes on both his feet had been mashed off by a falling tree.

ALEXANDRIA AMUSEMENT CO.

The amusement lovers of this city were afforded a great treat last night in the moving pictures at this house. They were the best seen in a great while and were much enjoyed. Tonight the pictures are "I would like to marry you," "Don't take me home," "Praise Ye" and "Honey want you please come down." The above talking pictures are of the first order and are "Street Wall's Christmas," "The Beauty and the Beast" and "Hurry Up, Please."

NEW CHURCH.

Preparations are being made for the erection of a church, which it is expected will soon be completed at Braddock Heights, near Alexandria. It will be served by students from the Virginia Theological Seminary under the supervision of the Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ church, Alexandria, with which church it will be regularly connected.—[Southern Churchmen.]

RECEPTION LAST NIGHT.

The reception given last night by the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal Church South in the Young People's Building was one of the most interesting and enjoyable affairs of the season. A musical and literary program was well rendered, at the conclusion of which refreshments were served. The reception was largely attended.

POTOMAC LODGE.

At the meeting last night of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., the final preparations were made for the exercises incident to the installation of the new officers next Friday night. As heretofore stated District Deputy George W. Hawhurst, of Falls Church, will conduct the ceremonies and a banquet will follow.

PERSONAL.

Rev. E. V. Register, presiding elder of this district, preached in the M. E. Church South, in this town, on Sunday morning, and also gave an interesting talk to the men's bible class in the afternoon. Mr. Register is always warmly welcomed in Leesburg, where his friends are numerous in all the churches.—[Leesburg Mirror.]

Mrs. W. W. Clark entertained Tuesday evening at her home in Webster avenue, Portsmouth, in honor of her sister, Miss Thomas, of Alexandria.

Dr. Thomas B. Cochran entertained his gentleman friends on New Year's day in what might truly be called old Virginia's hospitable style and everybody who had the pleasure of paying their respects to him, enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Blue laws and "Byrd laws" to the contrary notwithstanding. For the doctor believes as do most of his friends and admirers that "Though the river of life is flowing, we care not how fast it goes on, while the grape on the bank is still growing and love lights the waves as they run.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett entertained on Saturday at her residence, 408 Duke street, by giving a beautiful reception to the Daughters of the American Revolution. The guest of honor was Mrs. Mary Wood Smith, of California. The hours were from three o'clock to six. Mrs. Barrett was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Robert S. Barrett, Misses Herbert, Dafford, Lila Barrett, Hattie Douglas, Edmunds and Gold.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett has received a personal invitation from President Roosevelt to be present at a conference to be held at the White House on January 25th and 26th to consider the question of the welfare of children. The meeting will be attended by a number of prominent men and women at the head of child rescue organizations. It is the first conference of its kind ever held in the United States.

Mrs. F. S. Harper will give the first of her Monday evenings at her home on Monday next from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Mr. Clarke Starnell, of Alexandria, who has been the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Longren has returned to his home. Mr. Dallas Richardson, formerly of this city, but now of Alexandria, who has been spending the holidays with relatives and friends on the hill, has returned to his home. Mrs. Starnell, of Alexandria, is the guest of her daughters, Mrs. Longren, of north Twenty-second street, and Mrs. James Olcott, of east Main street.—[Richmond News Leader.]

Miss Ellen Fawcett very delightfully entertained the Junior Card Club at her home on Prince street last night. The party prizes were won by Miss Jean Brent and Mr. Windsor Snowden.

Mr. Edmund J. Burke, now of Boston, is visiting his mother, Mrs. John W. Burke.

OPERA HOUSE.

Another large and well pleased house attended the vaudeville and motion picture performance given at the Opera House last night. Miss Pauline Welch was very clever in her impersonations of Anna Held and Eva Tanguay. Ed. Piercy, the comedy juggler and monologist, was as funny as ever as a comed man and his juggling was indeed a feature act. Miss Mattie Ashton, the sweet ballad singer, was a decided hit in her new ballad entitled "Roses," and she had to respond to many encores. She will repeat the song tonight. The pictures were exceptionally fine and the management always makes this their specialty.

The running of electric trains between this city and Washington was interrupted early this morning by the falling of wire between the two cities.

The weather was clear and cold again last night and the heaviest frost of the season was seen this morning. This ice formed in the river from shore to shore.

The property near the corner of Gibson and Patrick streets and also that on Prince street near Payne, advertised to be sold at public auction today, was withdrawn.

The remains of the late Mrs. Mary A. McGinnis, who died in Washington on Wednesday, were brought to this city this morning and interred in S. Mary's cemetery.

A blanket was stolen early this morning from the back of a boy's which was attached to a wagon in front of the Royal street entrance to the market house. It is said that several blankets have been taken from horses at the same place recently.

Peter Pau was a cute little boy that ran away from home one day and never came back. You see, he found the never, never land where little boys and girls never grow up. Some people said he was a bad little boy for running a way from home and causing his parents so much worry. One day he told me the reason why. He said that neither his mamma nor his papa would ever give him a try of those delicious Auth sausages for breakfast. Sylvan Blondheim, The Auth Stand, City Market.
